

Alloy

/ˈæl.ɔɪ/

Noun

Meaning	A mixture of two or more metals
Example	Brass is an alloy of copper and zinc.
Sentence	Scientists created a new alloy stronger than steel.
Mnemonic	Alloy = All + Oy! = Mixing metals
Synonyms	Mixture, Blend
Antonyms	Pure Metal

Allude

/əˈluːd/

Verb

Meaning	To suggest or refer to something indirectly
Example	He alluded to the problem without stating it directly.
Sentence	She alluded to her achievements during the speech.
Mnemonic	Allude = A lewd hint, not direct
Synonyms	Hint, Suggest
Antonyms	Declare, Specify

Allure

/ə'luər/

Verb/Noun

Meaning

To attract or tempt; the quality of being attractive

Example

The beach town allures tourists every summer.

Sentence

The allure of adventure drove him to travel the world.

Mnemonic

Allure = All + Lure = Attract like bait

Synonyms

Attract, Entice

Antonyms

Repel, Deter

Ally

/'æɪ.laɪ/

Noun/Verb

Meaning	A person or country that cooperates with another; to join together
Example	France was an ally of America during the war.
Sentence	Smaller businesses allied to compete against the giant corporations.
Mnemonic	Ally = A lie together for support
Synonyms	Partner, Associate
Antonyms	Enemy, Opponent

Aloft

/ə'loʊft/

Adverb

Meaning	Up in or into the air; overhead
Example	The flag was flying aloft in the breeze.
Sentence	The helicopter hovered aloft above the field.
Mnemonic	Aloft = A lift to the air
Synonyms	Overhead, Above
Antonyms	Below, Beneath