

Angst

/æŋst/

Noun

Meaning

A deep anxiety or dread, typically an unfocused one

Example

She felt angst about her career choices.

Sentence

Many teens experience angst during adolescence.

Mnemonic

Angst = Anxiety ghost

Synonyms

Anxiety, Dread

Antonyms

Calm, Confidence

Anguish

/'æŋ.gwɪʃ/

Noun/Verb

Meaning Severe mental or physical pain or suffering

Example The anguish of losing her child was unbearable.

Sentence His anguished cries echoed in the room.

Mnemonic Anguish = Angry pain

Synonyms Suffering, Distress

Antonyms Comfort, Relief

Angular

/'æŋ.gjə.lər/

Adjective

Meaning Having angles or sharp corners; lean and bony

Example His angular face made him look striking.

Sentence Modern architecture often has angular designs.

Mnemonic Angular = Angle + Sharp

Synonyms Pointed, Sharp

Antonyms Rounded, Smooth

Animosity

/ˌæn.ɪ'mɒs.ə.ti/

Noun

Meaning	Strong hostility or active hatred
Example	There was animosity between the rival teams.
Sentence	He harbored animosity toward his former boss.
Mnemonic	Animosity = Animal hostility
Synonyms	Hatred, Hostility
Antonyms	Friendship, Goodwill

Annex

/ˈæn.eks/

Verb/Noun

Meaning	To add or attach, especially territory; an addition
Example	The country annexed the neighboring land.
Sentence	The school added an annex for science labs.
Mnemonic	Annex = Add next
Synonyms	Add, Append
Antonyms	Remove, Separate